

Montenegro
BROADCASTING AGENCY
Number: 02 – 85
Podgorica, 4 February 2009

PRESS RELEASE

The Broadcasting Agency has warned today the Council of the National Public Broadcasting Service "Radio and Television of Montenegro", and councils of all local public service broadcasters that, in compliance with the Broadcasting Law, they are obliged to adopt and publish, not later than 15 days after the elections for the Parliament of Montenegro, Local Parliaments and Presidents of the City Councils have been scheduled, in daily newspapers and in other manner accessible to the public, the terms and conditions of representation of political parties, candidates and their respective programmes.

In compliance with the Broadcasting Law, the Council of the National Public Broadcasting Service "Radio and Television of Montenegro", and councils of all local public broadcasting services are obliged to adopt and publish the aforementioned terms and conditions of representation of political parties, candidates and their programmes not later than 10 February 2009.

Adherence of the public broadcasters to the aforementioned obligations will contribute to the transparency of the forthcoming elections, enabling every citizen to be timely, accurately and impartially informed about all phases of the electoral procedure.

Elvira K. Cekovic, MA
Public Relations Adviser